This handout was created by the Colorado Department of Revenue (CDOR) to explain general state and local tax information for outfitters and owners of short-term rentals.

Did you know that lodging and accommodations are taxable?

Owners and managers of units rented for less than 30 consecutive days are required to collect and remit sales taxes. Applicable state, special district taxes, county lodging and local marketing district taxes, all state-collected local and county sales taxes are also due on the rental price.

- What is a Local Marketing District Tax? A local marketing district tax is a tax on lodging services leased or rented for less than 30 consecutive days.
- What is the County Lodging Tax? The county lodging tax is a tax levied only in certain counties within Colorado and is applied specifically to lodging services, such as hotels, motels, condominiums, space rentals, camping facilities and services, auto camps and trailer parks for rentals less than 30 consecutive days.
- Check CDOR's DR 1002: Colorado Sales/Use Tax Rates publication to see if your business is located in an area that assesses a Special District, Local Marketing District and/or County Lodging Tax.

What is included in accommodations, for tax purposes?

Accommodations include hotels, motels, bed-and-breakfast inns, condominiums, campsites and time shares of any lodging unit. Those provided at no charge (e.g. "comped") are not subject to sales or use tax. (See FYI Sales 11: Sales Taxes Due on Unit Rentals of Hotels, Motels, Bed-and-Breakfasts, Condominiums, and Time-Shares)

Rental income is also taxable by the federal and state governments, even if it is a side job, part time business, and/or paid in cash. Income from self-employment and rental activities are not subject to withholding taxes. To avoid penalties, you must make quarterly estimated income tax payments if you expect to owe at least $1,000 or more in state income taxes than the amount withheld from your salary, pension or other income.

Are there any other taxes owed that aren't collected by CDOR?

Home-rule cities that collect and administer their own taxes may treat items differently than the State of Colorado and the jurisdictions whose sales tax the state administers. You must contact a home-rule city directly for its policies. Consult CDOR's DR 1002: Colorado Sales/Use Tax Rates publication for local sales tax rates and contact information for self-collected areas and home-rule jurisdictions.
